PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION ACT (POPIA) PRIVACY POLICY

1. STATEMENT OF COMMITMENT

In accordance with Section 14 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996, everyone has the right to privacy, which includes protection against the unlawful collection, retention, dissemination, and use of personal information. Ngova Trading (Pty) Ltd as Ngova Security Services (hereinafter referred to as "Ngova Security") is fully committed to upholding and protecting the statutory privacy rights of our staff, clients, visitors, guarding crews, and website users under the Protection of Personal Information Act, No. 4 of 2013 ("POPIA"). This document dictates our transparency, storage parameters, and processing systems.

2. DESIGNATED INFORMATION OFFICER DETAILS

In compliance with Sections 55 and 56 of the POPIA Act, the following individual is formally designated as the statutory Information Officer of Ngova Security to ensure immediate regulatory adherence:

• Appointed Head Officer:	Executive Director
• Corporate Title/Role:	Information & Compliance Officer
• Direct Email:	compliance@ngova-security.com
• Office Contact Number:	+27 (0) 21 360 8201
• Registered Focal Region:	Western Cape, South Africa

3. CATEGORIES OF PERSONAL DATA PROCESSED

To provide effective physical guarding, access control counters, and risk assessment parameters safely, Ngova Security processes several classes of sensitive personal records:

- Client Profiles: Company registries, director names, site GPS coordinates, security system codes, and invoicing/statement files.
- Visitor Sign-In Records: Names, ID numbers, driver licence numbers, vehicle registration plates, dates, times, and biometric facial logs at visitor checkpoints.
- Tactical & Environmental Logs: High-definition CCTV feeds, drone footages, vehicle tracking registers, guard patrol checkpoint timestamp logs, and supervisor incident reports.

4. LAWFUL CORE PURPOSES OF DATA PROCESSING

All personal records are compiled, archived, and processed under Section 11 of POPIA strictly for certified legal objectives:

- a. Carrying out formal perimeter guarding and tactical security contracts in direct accordance with Client instructions.
- b. Securing real perimeters and preserving the life and safety of guard personnel, employees, and client visitors.
- c. Complying with regulatory reporting and statutory ledger maintenance under the Private Security Industry Regulation Act 56 of 2001 (PSIRA).
- d. Consolidating authentic physical and video evidence of security breaches, criminal trespass, or physical intrusions to assist SA Police Services (SAPS) investigations.

5. RECIPIENTS AND SAFEGUARD PROTOCOLS

We do not sell, rent, or lease personal records to market agencies under any terms. Deployed security information is handled with absolute confidentiality. Information recipient channels are strictly limited to PSIRA regulatory auditors, authorized SAPS detectives conducting physical crime scene audits, or court-issued subpoena procedures.

Our files are secured utilizing rigorous administrative and engineering measures including enterprise firewalls, grade-specific staff clearances, and military-grade AES-256 server database encryption keys. CCTV servers are housed in air-gapped terminal rooms locked under heavy keycard guard.

6. CONSTITUTIONAL DATA SUBJECT RIGHTS

Under POPIA conditions, data subjects hold structural rights to: (1) request access to their archived logs, (2) request formal correction or deletion of inaccurate files, or (3) object to processing under compelling terms. For formal records procedures or queries, direct correspondence to compliance@ngova-security.com.
